

R. Bruce Wark

Biographical information: Currently Associate General Counsel for American Airlines, responsible to Antitrust, Environmental, and Intellectual Property. He has been employed by American Airlines since 1993, and has handled a broad range of litigation and regulatory matters, including those relating to airport access, airport rates and charges, aviation disasters, patent and trade secret litigation, CRS practices, international competition, airline alliances, and antitrust and consumer class actions. He serves on the Governing Board for the ABA Air and Space Law Forum, and has written a number of articles relating to legal issues affecting the airline industry. He received his JD from Georgetown in 1986 with honors.